IT'S HEREBIG MARATHON
IS RUN TODAYWorld's Best Long Distance
Runners Meet at the Polo
Grounds, New York.

New York, April 2.—The International Marathon Derby, which will outlast all professional running events ever held in this country, will be held tomorrow. Six of the greatest long-distance runners in the world will start in the race of 26 miles and 385 yards at the Polo grounds at 3 p. m.

Never before has such a galaxy of runners been brought together. The United States, England, Ireland, Canada, Italy and France will be represented, each by its best men, and a thrilling race for the big cash prize is expected.

Johnny Hayes, winner of the Olympic Marathon in London, the exciting race that has been responsible for the Marathon craze here, will represent the United States; Alfred Shrubbs, the speedy Englishman, will wear the Indian jockey; Thomas Longboat, the Indian, the maple leaf of Canada; Dorando Pietri, the Capri hiker, will represent Italy; Matthew Maloney, now of Yonkers, but only a few years ago from his native land, will wear Ireland's insignia, and Henri St. Yves, a young man who recently ceased to be a waiter to don the spike shoes, will carry the tricolor of France.

Longboat is the favorite at 7 to 5, with Dorando next at 9 to 5. Shrubbs and Maloney are at 4 and 5 to 1, respectively, with Hayes at 10 and St. Yves at 12.

The men are all in the contention. The prize is $10,000 in cash, divided into four purses of $2,500, $2,500 and $5,000. This is the richest purse ever hung up for a similar event in any country.

JOCKEY IS REINSTATED

Shilling Will Be Allowed to Ride on Coast From Now
On.

Los Angeles, April 2.—The Santa Anita stewards decided today to reinstate Jockey R. L. Shilling, but to restrict his mounts to his contract employer, R. L. Thomas. Shilling was suspended March 6 for rough riding in the Los Angeles derby. An investigation of Shilling's riding disclosed the fact that the jockey had been offered $500 to pull one of Thomas' horses. Shilling informed Thomas' trainer of the attempted bribery and the trainer had the horse excused from the race. Shilling has given a name of the would-be briber to the track stewards and action against him is probable. Shilling left town for Emeryville today, riding Squirrel in Saturday's stake race.

GOTCH BREAKS TOE

TRAINING FOR MAHMOUD

Chicago, April 2.—Frank Gotch smashed one of his toes in his training work here today, but the injury is not thought to be serious enough to hamper him in his preparation for his match with Yusuf Mahmoud. In a game of handball at the Illinois A. C. Gotch ran into a wall.

The champion is getting into shape rapidly in the last three days he has remained at his weight of 212 pounds to 200 pounds. He says he will be down to 200 pounds when he steps into the ring with the Turk here on April 14.

TURF RESULTS.

At Oakland.

Oakland, April 2.—Dandelion, the well-placed favorite, scored an easy victory in the six-day race feature of the program at Emeryville today. The Hildreth horse found the route to his liking and taking the lead in the last quarter, led Jack Granda and Boggs past the wire. Red Leaf won the mile and a half race cleverly.

G. Burns has been reinstated to ride for Sam Hildreth only.

BUTTE SKATER IN TOWN

Reynolds Arrives to Take Part in Next Week's Six-Day
Race.

J. M. Reynolds, the crack Butte roller skater, who is entered with Bradford of Butte in the six-day race next week, arrived in the city last evening from Butte. Reynolds says Bradford will be a hard fight, but he is confident he will win. Reynolds says last evening that this report was hardly true as the boys were treated fairly by the officials. He said that Schatz and Hardy were the popular favorites from the start and that they were strangers in Butte they had the whole town rooting for them to win. Reynolds admitted that they were the hardest pair of youngsters he had ever been up against and that he looked for a hard race against them next week. Reynolds says both he and Bradford are in great shape for the race and that they will make a strong bid to take the honors back to Butte with them.

YOUNG BRITT AND
GOLDMAN BOX A DRAW

Savannah, Ga., April 2.—Because both men were on their feet at the end of the twenty-round fight here tonight, the referee declared that Young Britt and Goldman had boxed a draw. However, had there been no agreement about this, Goldman would have received the decision.

SEASON OPENSVarsity and L. D. S. U. Play
First Scheduled Game Today at Walker's.

The intercollegiate baseball season will open today on Walker's field, when the university will meet the L. D. S. U. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock. These two teams tied for first place in the league last year and there is naturally much rivalry between the two institutions in this sport. Larsen will pitch for Utah and Grant, the crack slab artist from Bountiful, will be in the box for the L. D. S. U.

The university term held its final workout last night, and as usual, the eligibility rules put the screws on the team, but they were only successful in keeping one man out of the game. The victim was Lewis, the crack shortstop and heavy hitter. His place will be taken by Sneddon. The rest of the university lineup will be the same as in the practice games.

L. D. S. U. has an exceptionally strong lineup this year, with many of last year's men. The team has been practicing every evening for the last three weeks on Walker's field, and in the practice games with All Hallows and other schools the team has done exceptionally well. Billy Sneddon will umpire. The lineup:

Utah: Stephens, Snow, Larson, Grant, Horton, Smith, Muir, Lee, Sneddon, Faust, Dyer, Nielson, Lanning, Home of Lund.

that there will be something doing on Sunday night.

Through the efforts of T. L. Holman, arrangements are under way to get the governor and the state officials up here on the special train from Salt Lake. It is quite probable that there will be at least 100 people come out on the train, which, returning, will leave here at midnight. After the show the Bingham Commercial club will keep open house to all the visitors. One of the humorous fellows connected with the show will be the Mystic Shrine; V.
